

pApavimochana stotram.h by Sri Vijayindra tirtharu

Sri Vijayeendra Theertha is the parama guru of Sri Raghavendra Theertharu of Mantralaya. Sri Vijeendra Theertha was a student of Sri Vyasaraaja Theertha and well versed in all the 64 arts and authored 104 books that cover Kavya, Nataka, Alankara, Mimamsa, Vyakarana, Tarka, Vedanta etc in Sanskrit language. His brindavana is at KumbakonaM, Tamil Nadu.

This Durithapahara stothraM also known as Papa vimochana stotra is addressed to be Lord to redress all the sins & sanction His Grace. This not only suggests our siddhantha but utter humility of this great luminary is revealed in his prayer.

The mistakes written in these shlokas do not apply to aparoja jnAnis like Sri Vijayeendra Theertharu et al... This stotra is mainly applicable to common people like us for whose sake they compose these.

O! One who is the controller of this world with the sentient and the insentients; and who sanctions Moksha to the deserving souls according to their deservedness, hence called by the name Mukunda that is O Narayana ! in my life time I have failed to acquire merit at least of the size of Gingelly seed. Every second, I have been doing only sinful acts by my pancha jnana indriyas & Karma indriyas.
